Erin,

This is the first I've heard of any challenge to the SSURO we issued to AltEn, however, the general manager did request a second sample be tested from a more "mature" pile of wetcake, and we should be getting those results soon. Then the decision to hold a hearing or not will be made.

Tim, heard a little bit of an update on Alt En today and if I understood correctly, it sounded like they are contesting NDA's stop sale order. Just wanted to reach out and say if there is anything my or Wilfredo's shop can do, please let us know.

Thanks,
Erin
